

The background is a lush, green landscape with a large, pink and purple castle in the distance. The castle has many windows with yellow light. In the foreground, a young boy with blonde hair and glasses, wearing a brown tunic and a tool belt, stands with his arms outstretched. He has large, white, feathery wings. A large, glowing blue star is floating in front of him. In the upper left, a fairy with long white hair and a blue, sparkling dress is flying. The entire scene is filled with sparkling light effects and a golden border with ornate designs.
